

Boring Photos

What: A good photographer can take the ordinary and make it extraordinary. How? By changing the lighting, the perspective, the background and many other ways. This project focus on unique angles.

Your task: Take photos that would be ordinarily boring, and make them interesting.

Requirements: You will present to the class a 10 photo PowerPoint with photos that are usually considered boring. You will be judged by Mallett for each photo. You will get up to five points for how ordinary the subject is and then up to five more point for how you made it interesting. You do NOT have to show the "boring" or bad photo in the PowerPoint.
