Join TAJE for Fall Fiesta Oct. 12-14 in San Antonio – you won't want to miss it, to be honest to learn from the best

TWO FAMILIES. ONE BORDER.

*Two families tried to cross the Mexico-U.S. border.
One made it. One didn't.*

Scott Winter will show and discuss the documentary his students produced with Guatemalan partners followed by a panel discussion to open the convention at noon on Oct. 12.

Featured Speaker
Scott Winter

A familiar face at Fall Fiesta, Winter is a professor of English and Journalism at Bethel (Minn.) University. Winter is a published author who takes his students on social justice journalism trips in collaboration with the Art + Design Department to create magazines and documentaries. His research interests are long-form creative nonfiction and international social justice storytelling. Read more about Winter and the documentary here and watch the trailer here.

David Knight will join Winter to once again lead an Intensive Writing workshop 3 – 5 p.m. Saturday during on-site contests. Preregistration is required, and cost is $20 per student and/or adviser.

On Sunday, advisers and pros will teach sessions covering all aspects of scholastic journalism, and on-site critiques will provide staffs with valuable feedback. Registration will be waived for teachers who volunteer by Sept. 27 for at least two activities including speaking, moderating contests or doing on-site critiques. Submit a speaker proposal.

Monday's featured speaker is Cathy Kuhlmeier – yes, that Kuhlmeier. If you've ever discussed the 1988 U.S. Supreme Court landmark case Hazelwood v. Kuhlmeier, you know the case involved censorship of articles in The Spectrum student newspaper of Hazelwood East High School in St. Louis.

But is that all you need to know?

"What you've read in the textbooks about Hazelwood v. Kuhlmeier isn't the whole story of what happened in this case," Kuhlmeier says. "It's the 10,000-foot view that paints the school in the best light and the students as disgruntled kids. I'm going to give you the untold truth behind Hazelwood."

"And now for the rest of the story."

Read more about Kuhlmeier here.
