HEAR INSPIRING SPEAKERS

The opening assembly of the Texas Association of Journalism Educators Fall Fiesta on Saturday, Oct. 18, features Texas Observer investigations editor

Featured Speaker
Lise Olsen

Lise Olsen, an investigative reporter, editor and author based in Texas who has uncovered twisted tales, including crooked judges, an unjust execution, massive environmental disasters, myriad cases of corruption, and unsolved serial killings. Her reports in three states over 20 years contributed to the prosecutions of a former congressman and a federal judge, inspired laws and reforms, helped solve cold cases, restored names to unidentified murder victims and freed dozens of wrongfully held prisoners. Read more here.

Following the opening session, David Knight and Scott Winter will lead an Intensive Writing workshop 3 – 5 p.m. during on-site contests. Preregistration is required, and cost is $20 per student and/or adviser.

On Sunday, advisers and pros will teach 40-minute sessions covering all aspects of scholastic journalism, and on-site critiques will provide staffs with valuable feedback. Registration will be waived for teachers who volunteer by Sept. 26 for at least two activities including speaking, moderating contests or doing on-site critiques. Submit a speaker proposal.

Monday's featured speaker is Pat Doney, a sports anchor/reporter at NBC 5 in Dallas / Fort Worth since 2013. Doney will rush to San Antonio after he covers a Dallas Cowboys game on Sunday. He has earned five Emmy and three Edward R. Murrow awards in his career, including the Emmy for Best Sports Reporter in 2023. Known for his inspirational storytelling, Doney has reported at some of the top sporting events in the world. Read more here.
